

Hang In There... Kitty Workshop

Thanks to the Youth Program at the Community Presbyterian Church in San Juan Capistrano, Fran Eagan, and Barbara Ward for setting up the facility for our inaugural workshop.

Thanks Carol Mayer for making workshops happen.

Monica Shafer began her kitty, and fused the whiskers, great idea.

Susan Nawa Raridon created a Siamese cat for her sister.

Irene Hughes from South Africa is visiting her daughter, Vivien Hawker. They took the time to visit and sew.

Hiroko Moriwaki used bright colors. Just what her Sadie ordered.

Sharon Whelan used fun bright fabrics.

Odette Ostankowski quickly chose her fun fabrics and whipped out her kitty.

Maggie Bell used buttons for eyes!

Irene and Vivien's kitties do like to hang around.

Thank you from Nancy Ota
Thank you for the opportunity to teach the inaugural workshop for Surfside Quilters Guild. Your gift of flowers, candy and gift certificate are much appreciated too. Most of all, I loved the chance to learn from these creative quilters.
