

Show & Tell

January 2022

SURFSIDE
QUILTERS GUILD

Glenna Anderson

Inspired by a picture on Pinterest
(meaning – no pattern!)

I learned how to make trees and sawtooth stars and then these parts marinated for five years. Finally, using a design wall, it came together.

Quilted by Cathie Opila.

Orange Peel Pillow

Debbie Myers

I took Becky McDaniel's workshop and have made six of these pillows. Five were gifts; this one is for my niece.

Walker Caddie

Cathie Opila

My mother-in-law-to-be had a stroke just before Thanksgiving. Fortunately, she did not have brain damage but is regaining strength in her legs and uses a walker.

One disadvantage of a walker is no cupholder. So I found this pattern, explored a fabric store in Nashville, and came up with this. Love the pockets and cupholder.

Walker Bag (front)

Pattern may be found on-line at:

<http://sewcanshe.com/diy-walker-caddy-free-sewing-pattern/>

Walker bag (back)

Crossroads

Karen Wendel

This quilt was made from years of odds and ends. (Crossroads pattern was designed by Lori Holt.)

My goal through this pandemic is to downsize my bins of fabric.

This quilt is going to Mexico for Yugo Ministries which is like Habitat for Humanity here.

