There are eight door prize baskets to be awarded at the end of the meeting. Members can enter for ONE basket they would like to win and must be present to win. These are to thank the members for their support of the Fest.

Del Thomas was introduced and thanked for taking the Fest and membership photos for our Newsletter and Directory. We would like all members' photos in the Directory, so smile pretty, and let Del know you'd like your photo taken. A Christmas quilt was used as a backdrop this month.

The Nominating Committee is made up of four active members, plus two alternates. Those serving on the Nominating Committee do not qualify to run for an Executive Board office for the next term. The Executive Board consists of the President, Programs Chair, Membership Chair, Secretary, Treasurer, Facilities Chair and Parliamentarian. BLOCK OF THE MONTH - Phyllis Parente and Sue Troise displayed the December House block, a Gingerbread House. Patterns are at their table and in the December Newsletter. It is not too late to begin the blocks. Five months are left before the $100 drawing in June for a completed quilt top. The basic patterns are easy to do and then embellished during the month.

Members were asked to sign a holiday card or note to the soldiers to be mailed with the next boxes of finished quilts. She asked all who have participated in making a part or all of a Wounded Warrior quilt to come to front at the break for a photo with Del Thomas. Susie had patterns for a Floating Friendship Star, the block for January, available at her table.

President's Quilt - Past President Sharon Whelan, announced it is time to plan for the President's Quilt for out-going President Joann and asked all to participate by making a block. Embellishing with trees, shrubs, flowers, fountains, birds, etc. is encouraged. Thick embellishments can be put in a plastic zip bag with member's name and pinned to the block to be added after quilting is done. The due dates are January 10 and February 14 so that quilting bees can be set up and the quilt finished for presenting at the May Guild meeting. Blocks returned by Board members were on display for members to see.
