 San Clemente, CA 92672

Doors open 9:30am Business Mtg 10:00am Program follows.

AUGUST DEMO DAY- WITH FELLOW MEMBERS

We have four talented members willing to share a particular skill at our Demo Day. Each person has about ten minutes to show their method and distribute a handout. We will rotate to the next member's table. There are our presenters:

LINDA RIGDON - I am an average quilter with a stash overload, and love to try something new. I have a lot of PHD'S. Recently, I'm paper piecing a scrappy quilt.

Quilt Binding Made Simple - join two binding ends together to fit perfectly and we'll also turn the corners to create self-forming mitered edges.

GLENNA ANDERSON - My first quilt was a Christmas log cabin started on Dec. 21 and discovered I needed more time.

Quilting Legacy - Create your family history in a quilt. This works great for school photos, cousins, ancestors.

MARY ARTER - Stars are my favorite shape for quilt projects. I also enjoy knitting, crochet & embroidery.

Easy Folded Star Coaster - Make one of these cute coasters using two fat quarters, a little interfacing and fleece, a glue stick and your sewing machine.

JUDI KILLBERG - As a sewer, crafter, quilter, I love being able to give friends and family something homemade.

Little Chicken Pincushion - Use your scraps to make this darling pincushion. It make a great gift for your sewing friends.

Board Meeting -
August 21 - 10am at
Seaside Villas Clubhouse
33715 Surfside Drive
Dana Point.

Can you believe it's August, 2018, already? I can't! I hope you are all enjoying your summer traveling with family and friends. Doug and I, of course, always seem to be traveling somewhere.

Last weekend we had plans to visit the bay area for both business and to get some snuggles in with my grandson Eli. I let Doug know there was a SCCQG meeting in Santa Barbara that weekend as well. He was all for it so we added that to our trip. I am so blessed to have a husband that is so supportive and loves anything quilt related like I do. Joann Bishop also attend the meeting with me as we broke into groups. I was with the Presidents and we were asked what was working, and what wasn't...with our guilds. I felt so proud, and still do, that I had no complaints, just glowing comments about our wonderful guild. We really are blessed to be a part of this hardworking, friendly guild.

Becky McDaniel

Our August general meeting will be our Demo Day. I so enjoy the demonstrations during this meeting. It's fun to learn some quick tips and projects from our members. We have such a talented group.

I'm also looking forward to our new "Bring your little quilter to a SQG SewCiial" on August 9. There is room for one or two more. This class will be at no charge. I will have a kit for $5 which includes the pillow form, zipper and applique foundation pieces cut out.

I am looking forward to seeing you at the August meeting. If you are traveling, be sure to stay safe and have a great time.

WORKSHOPS

with Vivien Hawker and Jane Salem

On August 9 we will have a special SewCial with Becky McDaniel teaching her “Little Quilter Flower Pillow when we “Bring Your Little Quilter to SQG” to a few of our lucky grandchildren. This is a free workshop.

Please join us for another SewCial on August 15 to create items for our November Fest raffle and boutique. Kits will be available or bring your own project. We always have fun sewing and socializing.

On September 12 Annie Unrein will be giving us a workshop on her Ultimate Travel Bag. Learn the secrets to making bags that look like you bought them - not like you made them.

Annie will share techniques like installing zippers, making adjustable carrying straps, and more. The perfect travel companion, this functional bag is carry-on-compliant and sure to turn heads wherever you go.

For more information go to byannie.com

On October 10 we have Lyn Mann and her No Ugly Fabric workshop where students bring and share ugly fabric squares to create a simply stunning scrap quilt. Learn how to make any fabric look great, depending on what you put with it, and have a really fun day. Check out Quiltsbylyn.com.

Our sample was made by Monica Shafer.

Workshops are held at San Juan Mobile Estates, 32302 Alipaz, San Juan Capistrano, (turn south from Del Obispo Street; the Estates is located about 1/2 mile down on left side), 9:30 to 3:30 on the Wednesday following the SQG general meeting unless otherwise noted.

>Any kit or book fees are payable directly to the teacher. The workshop fees are $40.00. Non-member fees are $50.00. Please make checks to Surfside Quilters Guild; the bank will not accept SQG.

>SQG members have first priority for workshop reservations until the break at the Previous general meeting. Non-members are put on a waiting list and, following the break, will be confirmed to attend .

>If you have a reservation but are unable to attend, please attempt to find someone to fill your space and advise Vivien Hawker by e-mail ASAP. Refunds are available until the break of the previous month's general meeting.

NOVEMBER FEST

Chair - Charlotte Runyan

Boutique - Judy Kamman

Quilt Auction - Cathie Opila

Raffle Baskets - Mary Arter

Fest News from the Chairman ~

with Charlotte Runyan

The November Fest committee met on July 24 to begin planning for our big fundraiser. All are excited to be working towards a successful Fest. We have started collecting quilts for the auction. We would also like to auction other items such as purses, bags, pillows, etc. Cathie Opila is collecting these items.

Baskets for the raffle have started to come together. Ask Mary Arter for ideas. Judy Kamman is coordinating the boutique. She has already started collecting donations and has some great items. We can use more.

We will be starting a list for helpers to work the various areas on Fest day, November 13. We will need help with set-up, clean-up, runners, ticket sales, etc. Please sign up at the August meeting so we can make this Fest successful.

Raffle Baskets ~

with Mary Arter

Thanks to your creativity and generosity, we have commitments for 13 November Fest raffle baskets. Thank you to those who have already signed up to create a basket or donated items for a basket. If you haven't signed up yet, please consider doing so—more baskets equals more fun(ds) for the Guild. Sign up at the general meeting or send me an email.

Here's a reminder of how you can help:

1. Create a themed basket. Do this with your friendship group or by yourself.
2. Donate items for Guild sponsored baskets. We're looking for items that fit the following themes: Patriotic (USA and red/white/blue items, including fabrics, notions, decorative items), Little Ones (fabric, clothes, toys, games, crafts, etc. for babies and toddlers). Response for the Try Something New basket has been great and that basket is pretty full.
3. Donate empty baskets. Do you have empty baskets taking up space? Donate them to be filled for raffle baskets.

MAGAZINE RECYCLE

with Connie Veldkamp

Connie Veldkamp

Bring your quilt related magazines, patterns and booklets dated not older than 2011 to recycle. They are such a bargain at $.25 each and sometimes you'll find a special issue you've been looking for. Funds go to guild projects.

The Southern California Council of Quilt Guilds met Saturday, July 14, 2018. Thanks to our President, Becky McDaniel and Newsletter Editor, Joann Bishop, for attending. They both felt that the round table discussion of officers was informative.

The next meeting will be on Saturday, October 13, 2018. The topic is “Philanthropy & Community Outreach” and will be hosted by Quilters by the Sea of Long Beach. The meeting is to be held at:

Lakewood First United Methodist Church/Baker Hall/Gym
4300 Bellflower Blvd. Lakewood, CA 90713

For those interested in attending, please RSVP Lori Ramsey, ramseylori74@gmail.com. 562-5222-0802.

HOSPITALITY

with Kathryn Firman, CeCe Bowe, Debbie Knutson

Time to reflect on the Hospitality Table. The theme in July was “let’s go on a picnic,” ants and all. Did you see the lady bugs on the sunflowers? Hope you had time to enjoy the ice cold watermelon.

To the ladies who brought goodies, it was much appreciated. Even if it’s not your birthday, feel free to bring a treat. One of the birthday ladies was CeCe Bowe, who just turned 85 years old. Oh, wow!

The sunflower bouquet was won by Michelle Lincoln.

PUBLICITY - THE ORANGE COUNTY FAIR

with Sharon Whelan

Guild members and guests stitched and shared their projects at the SQG exhibit table at the OC Fair on Friday, July 27, 2018, our ninth consecutive appearance. On the left, front row, are Judy Kamman, Vivien Hawker, Becky McDaniel, Monica Shafer, Mary Arter and Margery Mori. In the back are Sharon Whelan, Joan Provance, Terri Potts and Joann Bishop. On the right photo are Jeanne Haynes, Ursula Hartunian and Sharon Whelan. They greeted fairgoers and shared info about our guild and classes. Monica’s Millefiori English Paper Pieced quilt in progress drew quite a crowd.

Let's Get to Know...Millie Goldschmitt

with Susie Russell

As a charter member of Surfside Quilters Guild and having volunteered to do SQG publicity for three years, Millie continues to help our guild. Every year she makes up a big raffle basket that is both generous and beautiful. Millie would probably give you the "blouse off her back" if you needed it. She lives by the philosophies, "what you give the world is what you get back" and "make people happy again."

Millie learned this wonderful way of living from her dad. Being the only child and living in the tiny Michigan upper peninsula town of Trout Creek, she saw her dad regularly help anyone in town who needed assistance or something repaired.

Millie was valedictorian of her graduating high school class of 18 students. Later after graduating from Northern Michigan University, she traveled to California and taught until 2007 as an elementary school teacher in Cypress.

Millie's mother taught her to sew at an early age, so after retiring and with encouragement by her good friend, Angela Irish, it was the perfect time to learn to quilt. Of course Angela chose "Irish chain" for Millie's first quilt to make for her first grandchild.

Besides teaching, Millie also ran an apron business, "Flirttea Aprons" for three years in Laguna Beach. Millie also loves to read, loves dogs and is an expert knitter.

Millie and her husband have two daughters. One daughter is a jewelry artist for her own company "Throwing Stars" and the other is a professor at Wellesley. Millie's family and extended family grounds her. To renew that feeling she says she "must" go back to Michigan to her hometown every year.

Millie is a happy, energetic, and generous person who we are so fortunate to have as part of our guild.

WELCOMING

with Angela Miller, Hiroko Moriwaki

WELCOME TO THE GUILD!

Summer is a busy time of year so it's nice to find a little time to visit with your quilting friends at the guild meeting. Drop by the information station to see who might be able to do your long arm quilting, set you up with some new fabric, service your sewing machines and even help you find some quilt shows to visit if you are traveling around.

We'd like to welcome our new members. Stop by our Welcome table and we can show you how you can enjoy the different parts of Surfside Quilters Guild.

From Workshops to Philanthropy, we can answer your new member questions.

The information station is now the place to have your guild photo taken for our Directory. Stop by and we will do it in a flash!

STASHBUSTERS - PHILANTHROPY

with Mary Artur, Linda Chiu

WEDNESDAY, August 22, 2018 10 AM - 2:00 PM
SAN CLEMENTE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
119 AVENIDA DE LA ESTRELLA in SAN Clemente

Thank you to all guild members for your support of Philanthropy. Your beautiful work is always appreciated by the folks who receive your quilts.

Are you looking for another way to help Philanthropy? We accept donations of quilt fabrics. Large pieces are great for quilt backs, and smaller pieces (such as fat quarters or larger) go into making tops. We also accept orphan blocks and Projects Half Done that have become Never Gonna Happen—we find a way to use just about everything we get.

Whether it's one of our kits or your own design, you can bring completed tops to us at any general meeting. We'll add the batting, backs, quilting, and binding, and make sure it finds a good home. Or, you can do the quilting and bring us the finished quilt—whatever you like to do—you do you!

PLEASE NOTE: Our August Philanthropy sew session will be on Wednesday, August 22 at 10 AM (this is a change).

MONTHLY MINI

with Sheri Hill, Nancy Northrup

The August Monthly Mini is made by Cathie Opila. It is a petite quilted backpack made in lovely summer colors, perfect for a purse or gift to a granddaughter. It has a trimmed front flap and additional top handle.

Cathie began quilting 35 years ago and began her longarm quilting business six years ago. She volunteers her time quilting many of our Philanthropy quilts. Cathie is still discovering her quilting style and is willing to try anything.

Nancy Pestal won the July Monthly Mini, "Zip It Screen Play" bag, made by Nancy Ota, shown here with Sheri Hill.
