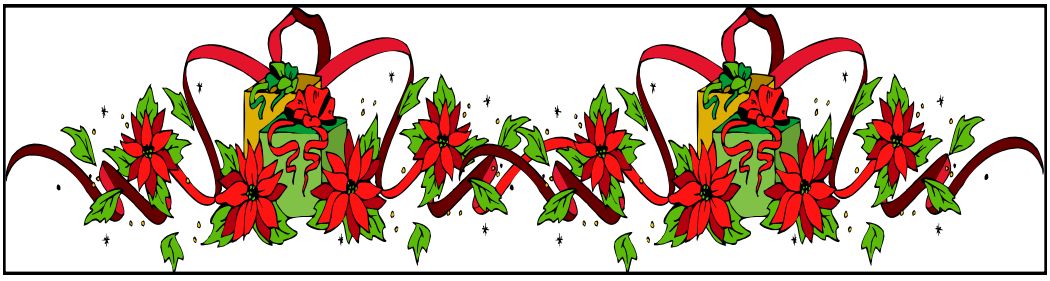
Member Showcase - Candy Martin

Candy has always loved quilts; they represent warm cozy memories to her. Her first quilting attempt was right after she was married. She collected a bunch of colorful quilt scraps from a local bathing suit manufacturer in Capistrano Beach. She was attracted to the colorful prints, but didn't consider what the fabric was made of. These scraps she sewed together into a queen size quilt and used "fluffy" batting; she tied the quilt to hold it together. That was in the early 70's. Sometime in the 1980's she signed up for a quilting class with Suzanne Stanton and has never looked back. In addition to all the wonderful friendships she has made through quilting, she also became a quilt addict. She is still part of a friendship group that evolved out of Suzanne's classes. Candy continued to enjoy quilt classes with Jan Hirth after Suzanne moved to Ramona.

She loves all sorts of hand crafts: pine needle baskets, embroidery, knitting, crocheting, and generally creating things from natural materials. Sewing aloha shirts and muumuus is another of Candy's regular activities. She also enjoys creating in the kitchen.



PRESIDENT'S CORNER

Vickie Janis 2010vickie@gmail.com 949-842-6089

Wasn't our November Challenge Fest a FABULOUS day? Special thanks to Barbara Seidel for all the hours she spent planning and organizing. And thanks to LeAnn Goettel and crew who prepared another amazing lunch for us. Once again, we couldn't have done it without all of you. Surfside is an amazing group of ladies; thank you to all who helped make the day so special.

December is upon us. Jan Hirth will be soliciting names for the nominating committee for next year's Executive Board. We will need four active members and two alternates. I have enjoyed being on the Board these past two years; it is so much more fun to be involved. Don't be afraid to volunteer; everyone has talents they can share. I jumped in not knowing what to expect and have had the time of my life!!! The holidays are just around the corner, please bring some canned goods to donate to Family Assistance Ministries and make Christmas about giving to others! See you Tuesday, December 10th.

Vickie Janis, President

HOSPITALITY

Marjie Butterworth marjieb@cox.net

Marjie Butterworth

So many special days, so little time! Let's not forget the December birthdays and hope that those ladies who are celebrating will remember to share a treat with their fellow quilters.

Call if you have a December birthday and will NOT be able to bring a treat so we can plan accordingly.

Thank You, Marjie and crew

Happy Holidays! This year has gone by so fast and I don't seem to have enough hours in the day to do all the quilting projects I have in my head and now with the holidays fast approaching most of my projects will have to wait until 2014. For a special treat I am including the January block to get you started on the New Year. I will jump ahead each month so we have time to put the quilt together for the June 2014 meeting. You will have a surprise coming for the finished projects----so stay tuned.

WORKSHOPS

Monica Shafer immshafer@yahoo.com Julie Vlahos juliev10@cox.net

December there will be no workshop, due to the holidays.

Even though daylight savings time is over until spring, you'll gain time to sew in December because there is no workshop this month. We may not be able to look forward to snowy days, but perhaps we will have a cold snap when we can enjoy a warm cup of holiday cheer while listening to the hum of our sewing machines and some seasonal tunes.

In January we'll begin the New Year with a workshop called Fabric Bowl-ing with Ami Simms. She has a fun method of wrapping cotton clothesline with bright fabrics, then creating beautiful and useful bowls in many shapes.

Check out Ami's work at www.amisimms.net

In February we'll be learning to do appliqué the easy way with Cathy Van Bruggen. Judging by the examples and pictures we've received, the results will be stunning!

No Philanthropy meeting in December, see you in January!

The Hoffman batiks quilts are coming in. Ten beautiful quilts are complete and more are arriving at each meeting. We hope to be able to show them in January before sending them to UCI Oncology in February.

We took 10 children's quilts to CHOC last month.

The Marine Wives' Shower will be in March, so baby quilts, receiving blankets, and sibling quilts are on our wish list.

"Thank you to our free motion quilters" who are getting our quilts finished a few at a time!.

Visit the Philanthropy table during the December meeting. We have quilts to be quilted, orphan blocks, and UFOs. There will also be "Quilt as You Go" kits that when finished will need no quilting or binding!

SMALL ITEMS: Our host church is grateful for the small toiletries and non-perishable food items we deliver each month.

Sale Of Gently Used Quilting Magazines

Jeanne Tavasci

Do you have a stack of used quilting/sewing magazines, patterns or pamphlets that you no longer want to keep? We sell them four for a dollar and the money goes toward guild expenses.

Patterns don't grow old. When they are done in new fabrics and popular current colors they have an entirely new look, something the Modern Quilt movement has discovered and continues to explore.

Sign-ups begin at the December guild meeting for the January 24th bus trip to the Road to California quilt show. There are 47 seats on the bus, and so far we have about a dozen people signed up. The list fills up fast, so reserve your seat on the bus by signing up in December. Checks payable to Surfside Quilters Guild- can also be mailed to Maggie Bell. Her address is in the guild directory. Tickets are $33 which includes transportation, entry to the quilt show, a program, and snacks. We will depart and be dropped off at the same places as the last two trips; that is, the Kmart parking lot on Camino De Estrella in San Clemente and the Target lot on Alicia in Mission Viejo. Also, even though the venue has promised more seating, many of us were very tired at Road last year, so we'll be leaving the quilt show at 2:30, an hour earlier than last year.

Any questions, please contact Monica or Maggie.

Wondering about sizes for Philanthropy and Wounded Warrior quilts?

These are not EXACT sizes, just guidelines. Any size is accepted; if you want to donate a double size quilt the committee will find a home for it!

Baby 36"x54"
Afghan/Lap 54"x72"
Twin 54"x90"

In order to fit on the gurneys the Wounded Warrior quilts need to be 48"x78" (or close).

Katy Lillie was the winner of the November Refreshment table décor done by Seamz Rite Friendship Group. All of the wonderful centerpieces were donated by individuals or friendship groups. A drawing was held at each table for the centerpiece on that table. Thank you to all those who contributed. .

WOUNDED WARRIOR PROJECT

Mary Freedman, Chair quiltlady@cox.net
Robin Free robinfree@cox.net, Nancy Burch johnandnancy@cox.net, Virginia Keenan gingin41@cox.net ,

I am so proud to share with all of you who worked so hard last month that on November 6th we completed and delivered 32 boxes to Jengi. She flew them to Afghanistan for delivery on Monday the 11th, Veterans Day! Unfortunately, the assignment for delivering supplies has been redirected to the East Coast only, and Jengi will no longer being making the flights to Afghanistan. Shucks! We will return to the process we used originally.
I want to remind everyone that the target quilt size is 48" x 78", maybe an 1" to 1 1/2" bigger to allow for machine quilting shrinking. This is the size that fits a gurney – keep it close.
We will still meet on Tuesday, December 3, but we are all busy with the holidays, so we will be taking a break from making blocks until January. All of you who have worked so hard, I can't thank you enough! I wish you all the Merriest of Christmases and/or Happiest of Holidays. It has been a very busy, productive, and proud year for me. I am so glad that I am associated with such a wonderful group of ladies. Sincerely, Mary Freedman

If you are new to the Guild and would like to join a Friendship Group, be sure to let our co-chairs know about it. A small group is a great way to get acquainted with others, take trips to quilt shows, shops, museums, or go to lunch and a movie. We've heard of a newly formed group that enjoyed a day out to Visions Art Museum in San Diego, lunch, and a trip to Rosie's. Come see us at the Friendship Group table at our SQG meeting.

Getting to know you…..

Did you guess whose blocks were in the November newsletter? Leslye Stringfellow, Cecile Rogers, LeAnn Goettel.

This is a contest to see if you can figure out whose blocks for Jan's President quilt are in the newsletter each month. Send an e-mail to SurfsideQG@aol.com giving your NAME and the names of the people in the blocks. I'll put the correct replies in a HAT and pull the winner(s) next May when the officers are installed. You don't need to know all three - your name goes in the hat for each member you correctly identify. Del

INTRODUCING …. Linda Ambrosini

Mary Crawford marycrawford1@aol.com 562-843-7546

Linda Ambrosini, our 1st Vice-President, has worked to provide wonderful programs for us in the year ahead. This is just one of the many hats she wears in the quilting world. We can see her skills in the quilts she designs and makes for Hoffman Fabric. Such as:

"Len's Quilt—We Come in Peace"

Linda's background as an engineer serves her well in being able to design quilts easily. She also has the skills to write directions clearly and concisely for the models she makes. She attributes this to her many years of sewing very complex patterns; after using such patterns in her sewing, quilting was very easy for her to pick up. She describes herself as a "self taught" quilter with skills gained through the camaraderie of quilters.

Linda also teaches quilting to others. She has taught many topics throughout the years, and is currently teaching free motion quilting at the Sewing Party in Laguna Hills.

Linda is a power sewer, making about 75 quilts a year. She likes piecing, paper piecing, and curved piecing and she enjoys making children's clothing most of all, despite her two sons and one daughter being in their adult years.

Her husband travels a good deal with his work, so to keep busy, besides her many quilting projects she teaches math to students in preparation for their taking the GED. We might also find her working in her yard growing both vegetables and flowers!

Thank you, Linda, for sharing your time and talents with us at Surfside Quilters Guild!

ELECTION AND BYLAWS

Parliamentarian Jan Hirth janhirth@cox.net 949-363-0533

Nominating Committee to be appointed.

December is the month the guild starts preparing for the next board which takes over in May. With the numbers of capable women in our guild, we should have many of you willing to take on one of these positions for next year. The President, Vickie Janis, will appoint a committee which consists of the Parliamentarian, four active members and two alternates. They will nominate the Executive Board: President, 1st Vice President Programs, 2nd Vice President Membership, 3rd Vice President Facilities, Secretary and Treasurer. The nominating committee is not eligible to be nominated for the Executive Board.

The nominating committee will meet on Wednesday, January 15, 10 am at the San Clemente Presbyterian Church. The Slate of officers will be presented to the membership in March. Additional nominations may be made from the floor at that time, providing that prior written consent of the nominee has been obtained.

The ballot shall be published in the newsletter prior to the April meeting which is when the voting will take place. The newly elected president will then line up the Standing and Special Committees. Volunteer forms will be passed out at the January meeting.

Bylaws to be revised.

Every two years, the bylaws of Surfside Quilters Guild are reviewed . This year the committee composed of Odette Osantowski , Karen Wendel, Marjie Butterworth, Katy Lillie, Nancy Ota, Mimi Harris and Parliamentarian Jan Hirth met and came up with revisions they feel are necessary. Members have been sent the revisions by email (in red print) that the bylaw committee feels need to be made. At the December meeting, voting will take place on whether or not to accept the changes. Sixty percent of the active membership is needed at the meeting to pass the revisions. Members can compare the changes with the present bylaws which are included in the printed membership directory.

Monthly Mini for December 2013

Margaret Arnold m.ar@cox.net

Susie Russell and Joann Bishop had fun making these pillows from some of the lovely red work blocks given to our Guild via Nancy Bloyer. They hand quilted the backgrounds and added the double ruffle. Keep one for yourself and give one as a gift.

Tickets are $1 each for $5 for six.

There was no Monthly Mini in November, due to the Challenge Fest, and, thus, there was no winner.

Blanche Young is living in an assisted living home in Corona. If any of you would like to send her a card, I am sure she would love to hear from you. 2667 Cherrybark Lane, Corona, CA 92881 Vickie Janis

CHALLENGE FEST - Barbara Seidel barbmelv@aol.com Brunch - LeAnn Goettel goettels@yahoo.com
Centerpieces– Jan Hirth janhirth@cox.net Facilities - Betty Collins collins0430@att.net

Without the help of the many volunteers, Challenge Fest would not have been so much fun. The behind the scenes committees of labels, door prizes, set-up & take down, judges, awards, viewer's choice ballot, table centerpieces, food and of course SQG Hospitality, all deserve a hug of gratitude. And, to those who braved the Challenge of quilting your "Herstory," your quilts were amazing and so creative. Surfside Quilters Guild is blessed with so many volunteers and creative quilters that it is no wonder that the guild is so successful.

My personal gratitude is extended to each and every one who participated in making the Challenge Fest a success.

Thank you.
Barbara Seidel

The Challenge Fest Centerpieces were fabulous!

When an email went out for volunteers to provide centerpieces for the Challenge Fest, the response was overwhelming. Walking around the room looking at the creativity of the members who made the ones on the tables was fascinating. There was everything from fresh flowers to a pumpkin turkey, and even an "antique" ceramic pumpkin. The members and friendship groups providing the centerpieces were Margaret Arnold, Cece Bowe, Betty Collins, Diane Collins, Rosalind Doidge, Kathryn Firman, Chris Huben, Judy Kemp, Judy Lawry, Margaret Lemmon, Peggy Linton, Carol Mayer, Wendy McCalley, Margaret Shea, Carmelle Spruill, Terry Van Horne, Carol Wade, Linda Walters, Linda Warzyca, and the friendship groups Seamz Rite and Designing Women. Beautiful job, ladies! Thanks for your donations.

A drawing was held at each of the tables for one member to take home the centerpiece.

CHALLENGE FEST (continued) The Food

A BIG THANK YOU to all of those who donated food, money and/or labor for our Fall Fest. It takes a lot of people to pull off our luncheon and I very much appreciated your donation. I would also like to thank those who decorated our tables. It provided a warm environment and it was a beautiful sight to behold.

My gratitude wouldn't be complete if I failed to thank my kitchen crew (our SQG Hospitality Team and my dear friends), who pull me out of all the holes I dig for myself. Thank you for being there year after year and helping me to pull off one successful lunch after another. You're all the best! Respectfully submitted, LeAnn Goettel
