Sherry Werum has lived in Woodland, California, with her husband, Mark, since 1972. They have three grown daughters and 8 grandchildren. It may not sound very interesting to live in the same small town for all those years, but Sherry and Mark love to travel. When they return home after a trip, together they capture the history and depth of the country they visited in a quilt. Mark does the drafting and Sherry does the piecing and quilting. She loves the challenge of discovering new methods and techniques needed to complete these original design quilts.

Sherry made her first quilt in 1973 and has won Best of Show and first place awards locally, in Sacramento, and California. Sherry has been teaching quilting classes and lecturing since 2006, but has been sewing professionally for 35 years. One of her great joys is her home quilting circle, "Fabric Friends." "They inspire me and challenge me, and help me solve my quilting dilemmas. They are my best friends."

 April 12 - Becky Goldsmith www.piecoecake.com

I love the Member's Showcase every year. It allows a member to show their talents and inspire us to try a new technique. Becky McDaniel was so amazing, showing her journey of quilting and to have a supportive husband to encourage her along the way was so special. I also enjoyed seeing the "Shining Star" quilts made for Nancy Ota and Mary Freeman for their contributions and support for our guild.

Odette Osantowski

2016 is now upon us and time for making New Year's resolutions. Mine include: spend more time quilting, spend more time with family and friends, continue to eat healthy and keep active, and QUILT, QUILT. Thank you to everyone who brought canned goods to the Dec. meeting. Family Assistance Ministries was very appreciative.

National Puzzle Day is January 19. It honors puzzles of all size, shape and form. There are easy puzzles, and there are puzzles for experts. They fit the needs of every person, and every skill level. Quilting is like a puzzle---there all levels of quilters and you need to fit all pieces together to make your quilt complete. If you miss a piece your quilt may end up as a UFO. Speaking of UFO, a new year has started for the UFO group so bring on all your unfinished puzzles (AKA projects) and they can inspire you and give you pointers on finishing your Unfinished Objects. .

WORKSHOPS

Wendy McCalley wendyannmccalley@cox.net Linda Rigdon qltncat@cox.net

Happy New Year!!! We are looking forward to a really fun-filled year, and we hope you are planning to join us in learning new things, gathering with Guild friends, and welcoming our teachers and demonstrators! Ask yourself, "Did I take a class to indulge my quilting enthusiasm and support my Guild in 2015?" Whether your response is "Yes" or "No", make a resolution to do so in 2016.

Workshops is on hiatus until February 2016 due to cancellation of Sherry Werum's Silhouette class. Our new workshop room is scheduled to have flooring installed and we are without a room.

In February we have Bonnie Hunter the Queen of Scrappy Quilts! We have expanded the workshop for 40 people. We do have a few vacancies left, but we opened to non-members at the December meeting. Bonnie is a popular teacher - so much so that we had to reserve her for Surfside Quilters Guild back in 2011! Don't miss her she's a lot of fun! Once you make a scrappy quilt without reservations, you'll be surprised at the fun you'll have - AND you will love the beautiful quilt you'll make!

Kim Fauth will teach ABCD Quilting (Absolutely Beautiful Creative Quilting) on March 9. Check out her Gallery and Variations Tabs on her website www.abcdquilting.com. By adding a few new shapes to squares and triangles, you can make quilts of any size, and the variety is amazing!

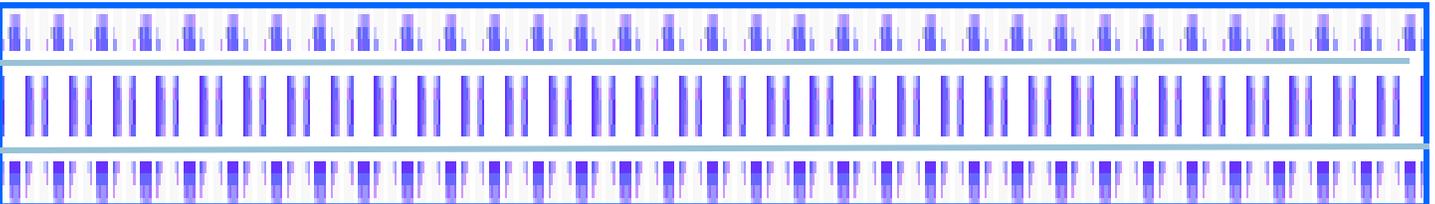

Wendy McCalley

Linda Rigdon

- >Any kit or book fees are payable directly to the teacher. The workshop fees are $40.00. Non-member fees are $50.00. Please make checks to Surfside Quilters Guild, the bank will not accept SQG.
- >SQG members have first priority for workshop reservations until the break at the previous general meeting. Non-members are put on a waiting list and will be confirmed to attend following the break.
- >If you have a reservation but are unable to attend, please attempt to find someone to fill your space and advise

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA COUNCIL OF QUILT GUILDS

Nancy Ota Nancy@nancyota.com 949-498-4243

The topic at the January 9, 2016 Council meeting will be Procedure Books, how to keep them updated and in a safe place. The meeting will be hosted by the Kaleidoscope Quilt Guild in Lemon Grove. President Odette Osantowski plans to attend.

The April 9, 2016 Council meeting will be "Meet the Teachers" at the Carson Community Center. It is a wonderful opportunity for guilds to meet speakers/teachers of interest. Also, Quilters who are interested in participating may send the $35.00 fee to Kennalee Mattson, 2329 Boone Ave., Venice, CA 90291. Details are available on the SCCQG website, <http://www.sccqg.org>.

In the fall Quiltfest Oasis Palm Springs will host a special exhibit of quilts with the theme "Capturing the Colors of California - Hues, Tints, Shades and Tones. The quilt must measure 24" horizontally and 20" vertically. If you are interested in submitting an entry, please email me for details and the entry form. Entries must be submitted by June 1, 2016.

Maggie Bell mbell62@aol.com 949-488-3011

As the weather cools, we tend to draw together for warmth and companionship. There are warm and friendly groups just waiting to bring you in! If you're near San Clemente there's a wonderful group that meets once a month to sew and go to lunch. The Women of the Bible group meets once a month to work on a block and a Bible passage. The small but mighty English Paper Piecing group is in its formation stage and will have its first get-together this month.

Here's a fun idea for you friendship groups: Take the bus trip to Road2CA together! Road trips are lots more fun with friends, so how about going with your friendship group?

Don't be left out in the cold! Brew yourself a cup of something warm then contact me. You'll be welcomed onto your new group of besties in no time flat!

The Passing of a Quilting Star

From Helen Young Frost:

My mother, and famous quiltmaker, Blanche Young died on January 2nd (she passed away peacefully in her sleep that morning). The funeral will be on January 15, at Forest Lawn, Cypress, CA. Mother knew sooo many people in the quilting world, so this is an efficient way of spreading the news. If anyone would like to send condolence cards, they can send them to me and I will share them with the rest of the family.

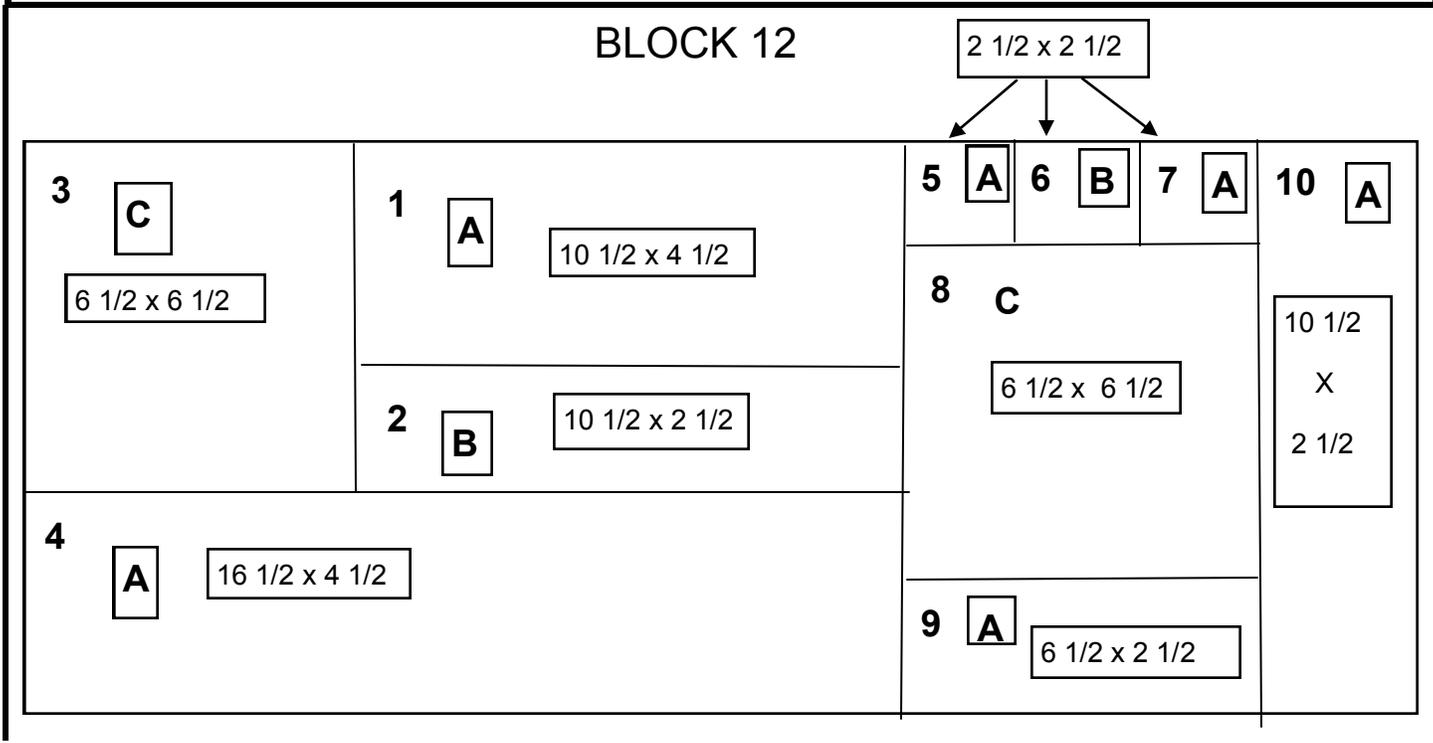

Here's a short bio for those who don't know who she is.

Blanche Young, who passed away on January 2, 2016 at the age of 96, was an internationally-known quiltmaker and author. She taught at guilds and conferences across the country and Europe and Japan. She was the author of ten books on quilting, including the best-selling Tradition with a Twist. She continued to travel and teach until she was 91. She was a prolific and generous quiltmaker, having made and donated more than 100 raffle quilts among the hundreds of quilts that she made in her lifetime.

The Family of Blanche Young c/o Helen Frost 10237 East Rio de Oro Drive Tucson, AZ 85749

This month we continue with our even-numbered blocks. On these blocks we are pressing towards the “B” pieces. Note that this block is longer than the others. It will measure 10 1/2 by 24 1/2.

Kayley Rose showed “Love Grows Here”.

Lynn Tweet designed, pieced and quilted “Grinch Xmas” for her great grandson. Now she will start on a quilt for his 2 month old brother.

Joann Bishop made this 75” square spider web quilt from her stash, using stripes, dots, 30’s, Kaffe, Civil War, repros, and florals. It is a Christmas present for her daughter. Quilted by Cosmic Quilting.

Mary Freedman shows a Mimion quilt she made.

Jan Kerr made this Minion quilt for her son-in-law after he saw one made for someone else. He flipped over it and wanted one NOW. He had to wait until a “Sew Fun and SQG.”

Jill also pieced the back of the quilt—two quilts in one!

Jill Oetken, Nancy Pestal’s “cousin”, showed “Lilac Splendor” made from the Fons & Porter pattern “Four in a Row”. This is her fifth quilt, although she has made several table runners for wedding presents.

WEAR YOUR NAME TAG
SO WE WILL LEARN YOUR NAME.

Jan Hirth showed this Xmas quilt made from blocks exchanged in her 12 years with the Threads of Friendship group. She added two of her own blocks and bordered each block with a black print to make them all the same size. She quilted the quilt on her Bernina

Nancy Ota with her "Magic of Christmas" quilt. Hand and machine pieced, embroidered, beaded, machine quilted. For 20 years the Threads of Friendship group has been exchanging Xmas blocks. This quilt contains some of those blocks, some from other exchanges, and some she made herself. She used only what she had in her stash, alas there is still so much more.

Jan Hirth also showed this Xmas quilt made from the BOM instructions from Beach Cities QG last year. She used machine blanket stitch to outline each block then machine quilted on her Bernina. This will go to a childhood friend who lives in snow country.

"Christmas Keepsakes" was made by Joan Orris from a block of the month offering by Shabby Fabrics for 2015. The Laser cut fused appliqué is machine satin stitched and this wall hanging is machine quilted.

Nancy Pestal shared her “Blue Delft” quilt made from blocks by Bette Bradley in a UFO swap 2 years ago. Nancy put them together, sashed, bordered and machine quilted.

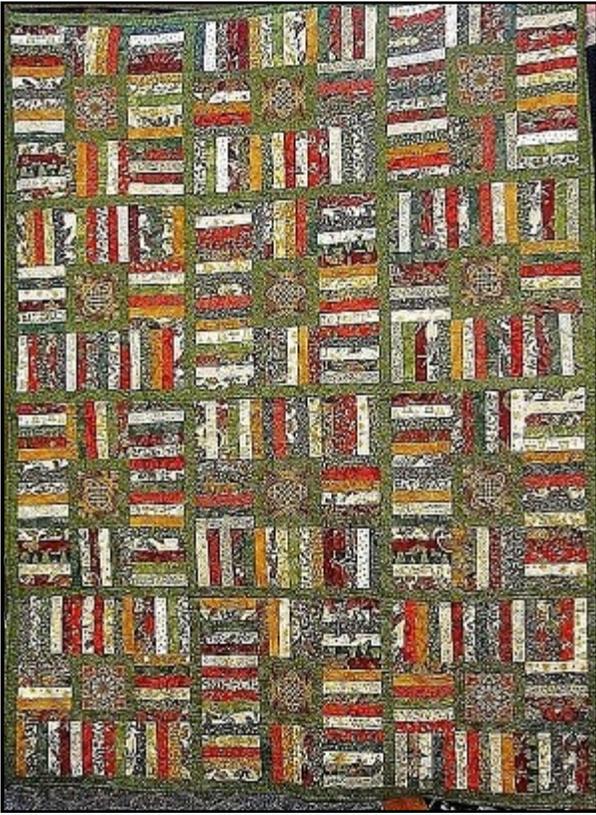

Sheryl Smith-Bailey showed “Potato Vine” which she started in a David Taylor class about 3 years ago. It has several different methods used. David does hand appliqué, Sherylh started with that and went to machine appliqué and finished using curved machine piecing and machine appliqué for the tight curves. She is so happy it is finished.

Nafsi Martin finally finished this quilt using her husband’s favorite Hawaiian shirts. The shirts are appliqued and the quilt is hand quilted. A lot of love went in this quilt as she thought of the happy memories of their almost 60 years together. She has two more to make for their son and daughter.

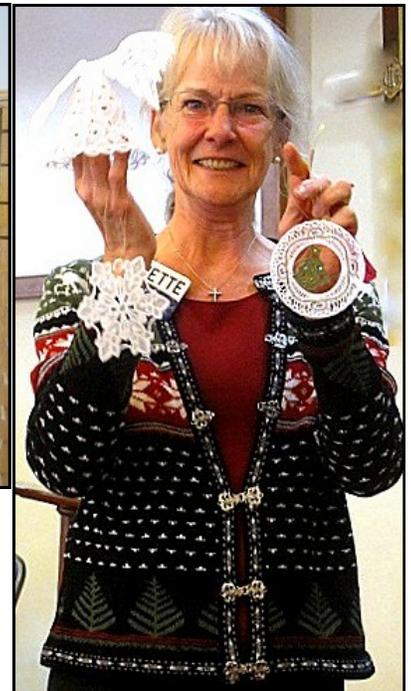

Connie Veldkamp bought this pattern at the last quilt show. It is “Santa and Rudolph in the Photo Booth”. It brought back memories of Junior High.

Cathie Opila shared two Scrappy Christmas quilts. Three years ago she realized she had become addicted to metallic Xmas prints; it was time to reduce her stash. She chose a strip pieced quilt and a wonky star quilt. She actually had 52 non-cream fabrics in her stash to complete the stars. She will loan these quilts to her daughters to decorate their apartments for the holidays.

There were two MoMini Items in December.

Annette Lienen winner of the MoMini - a lace angel and two ornaments machine made by Janet Shannon.

MaryLois Kuhn won the flowers from the Hospitality table. She brought a treat and put her name in the drawing at the table.

The Surfside Quilters Guild, a 501 (c)(3) corporation, was established in March 2009 to promote quilting and other fiber arts in the South Orange County area. The Guild offers the opportunity to share experiences with other quilters in an atmosphere of fellowship, as well as to enhance the knowledge and skills of its membership. Newsletters are distributed via the Internet. Dues are $30.00 annually for the membership year from May 1st through April 30th. Guests are always welcome for a donation of $5.00. Membership and Volunteer forms are available on our website:
