President's Quilt and Meet the Board

May is when we celebrate our year by presenting a special, personalized quilt to Linda Rigdon, our outgoing guild president. Betty Collins, our past president, will be the presenter, and will unveil the completed quilt to Linda. And then the members of the new board will share some of their favorite projects with us.

Since we usually don't have a workshop in May, it was a good month to bring back Claudia Gomez to teach her class Creating Modern Hawaiian Quilts, the Non-Appiqué Way. For this special workshop we've lowered the workshop price to $15, so together with the $25 kit fee, members will get a workshop and kit for the price of a workshop. Such a deal! Check out her website: www.devotedtocolor.com

PRESIDENT'S CORNER

Becky McDaniel becky@beckymcdaniel.com 949-899-5111 Cell

Wow! Can you believe another year has gone by at Surfside Quilters Guild! It went way too fast!

With it being May, not only is it Spring, but, it is time to change our board. With that, we want to thank Linda Rigdon for a wonderful year of leadership and fun! We will honor her at our general meeting with her president's quilt made by our talented members, led and organized by past president Betty Collins.

After the presentation of the president's quilt, the incoming board members will be introduced by the newly elected President Becky McDaniel. The board will show some of their favorite quilts and give a little information about themselves and what they like to work on.

Please join us for a fun morning enjoying each other and honoring our wonderful president Linda Rigdon.

Becky McDaniel

PAST PRESIDENT/PARLIAMENTARIAN

Linda Rigdon gltnecat@cox.net 949-588-1640

May is here and it's the beginning of the term for our new President, Becky McDaniel. Becky has done a super job as our Programs Chair, and I know she has a wonderful year planned for our special Surfside Quilters Guild. It's been my pleasure to work closely with her over the last year.

I want to thank all of you for making my term as President a personally fulfilling one. Your enthusiasm made the meetings fun for me. I always enjoyed seeing your smiles and hearing what you have said. You were there when I asked for your help - every single time. Who could ask for more?

My heartfelt thanks goes to my SQG Board. Nothing can happen in our Guild without the planning, coordination, and work that is thoughtfully done by the Board. If you haven't served on an SQG Board, I urge you to do so - start by volunteering. You are wanted and needed, but more importantly is what you will receive for your efforts: self satisfaction, good vibes, and good feelings about yourself and your fellow quilters.

It was my honor and my pleasure to have served you.

BYLAWS

Betty Collins collins0430@att.net 760-722-4796 760-805-9908 Cell

Every two years Surfside Quilters Guild reviews the bylaws and makes any changes, amendments, or revisions that may be needed. At the January general meeting the President asked for 5 (five) members who would like to review the bylaws with the Parliamentarian and the President. The amended bylaws were to be presented to the members in March with the actual vote in April. This year the vote will be in May. The volunteers were Mary Arter, Nancy Gasparotti, Odette Osantowski, Becky Reed, and Nancy Pestal. Becky McDaniel, and Maggie Bell were the alternates. Linda Rigdon, President, and Betty Collins, Parliamentarian were also on the committee.

The Bylaws Committee recommends the following change to the bylaws.

We suggest that the standing committee "Friendship Groups" be removed as a standing committee and instead be made part of Welcoming. This way, Welcoming will just put out a list if there is a group that wants to advertise an opening.

The friendship chair position has been a difficult one, because most groups really just want to stand on their own without the involvement of the guild. So, we believe that moving the responsibility and communication to Welcoming, will allow communication if there is any. When the Welcoming committee holds their new member get-togethers, they informally facilitate the creation of new friendship groups or adding members to existing groups when seats are available. This modification will alleviate any potential or perceived liability on the part of our guild. Friendship Groups were not mentioned in the original bylaws; they were added later as a standing committee.

Please review your Bylaws Article VII – Standing Committees, section 5 and 6. We will be voting on the bylaws at the May general meeting. If you have any questions please call Betty Collins at 760-722-4796 or 760-805-9908.

PHOTOGRAPHS

Del Thomas delqlts@aol.com 714-315-9526C

Have you looked at your photo in the Directory lately? Some of the images were taken the very first year of the guild and are very poor. Now, I know that we all would like to look just as we did back in 2009, but some of us have changed enough that it is hard to find the person we are looking for! Now is the time to have your picture taken again to see it in the 2018-19 Directory that will be printed in June. As newsletter editor I use the directory every month to identify people in the pictures I take at meetings. So, recognizable photos are an important tool for me and for the others on the SQG board.

Please look at your photo, put on a nice top, and come to the May meeting ready to be photographed. Del

The Meet the Teachers meeting is much appreciated by the member guilds. It is the opportunity to see, meet, and listen to the speakers and teachers available for us. Our incoming 1st VP/Programs, Monica Shafer, and President Becky McDaniel attended to line up our programs and workshops for 2019-20.

If you are traveling and interested in visiting other guilds in Southern California, please check out the SCCQG website to learn what guilds may have meetings convenient for you to visit. It is interesting to see what other guilds have to offer.

THANK YOU! Del Thomas

It has been a great run doing the newsletter for all these years. I thank all of you who have told me how much you enjoy it; that keeps volunteers going year after year. Be sure to tell the officers, chairs, and all the helpers at the meetings that you appreciate their efforts. It helps!

I am still a member and will attend meetings when I am not traveling. It will be nice to go on a road trip and not have the newsletter to work on after a long day on the road. But I will surely miss doing it. Joann Bishop will take over in May and I know she will do a great job. She will have her own style and methods. I know you will give her your support. The newsletter is an important part of any organization. I wish more members read it to learn about what is going on in this great guild of ours. Del

SAN CLEMENTE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
119 AVENIDA DE LA ESTRELLA IN SAN CLEMENTE

Under Suzette Blake's and Nancy Pestal's guidance the Philanthropy Stashbusters Committee and many of our SQG members have made and donated over 250 quilts and 54 pillow cases in the 2017/2018 year. These quilts were donated to 13 charities, such as foster teens, veterans, children and adult cancer patients, seniors, three Camp Pendleton Marine baby/toddler showers, recuperative care for homeless men and women, and for hospice care.

We thank you for everything you do to help Philanthropy be productive. A special note of appreciation to our long arm quilters who quilt numerous quilts for the committee. Without them we would have a backlog that would be insurmountable.

We will begin the process for the 2018/2019 year on May 16 under the leadership of Linda Chiu and Mary Arter.

Please know that all skill levels are welcome to come sew, create, cut, organize fabric, and share in the love of making quilts to be given away. If you are unable to come to the Wednesday Sew Day, stop by the Philanthropy Table during the General Meeting; we have quilts to be quilted, quilts to be bound, and easy kits to be put sewn into a top.

FABRIC SALE!! Check out the FABRIC SALES at the Philanthropy table each month. Not just Fat Quarters.

As always, the church appreciates any toiletries donated. Please put the in the Fireside Room by the fireplace.

Our best wishes go out to Linda Rigdon and her family; their son was just married. Linda is thrilled to have a daughter-in-law! Congratulations to the new family.

We don't think there is anyone who doesn't appreciate the time and effort it takes to make something with fabric and we all certainly enjoy seeing the end results! Keep up the good work and keep on sharing.

Thank you also to Mary Jayne Bellamy and Mary Arter for assisting with holding and folding. We appreciate your assistance.

It's been fun getting up close and personal with Show and Tell creations. Thank you all for joining in the fun!

Becky McDaniel showed her "Scrappy Orange Peel" quilt which she made as a sample for when she speaks and teaches. It is machine appliqued with the foundation appliqué paper and machine quilted.

Becky McDaniel shared her "Dottie Rose" dolly which she first made for her granddaughter's second birthday. Becky saw similar dolls on ETSY, but couldn't find a pattern; so she made up her own, and named her Dottie Rose after her grandmothers, Dottie, who taught Becky to sew and Rose, her great grandmother, who she never met, but has been inspired by her quilts since she was a little girl.

Margaret Shea presented her quilt "Love of Triangles". This was the Surfside Block of the Month in 2014 and Margaret started out making both the regular and miniature sizes. But when she got well along she decided to combine the two block sizes by putting the miniatures in the corners. [Love the ocean colors. Del]

Elizabeth Geer shared "Wedding Banner". Recently a friend wanted to give a quilted gift to her friend who just got married. As they went over ideas, she saw a wedding banner I had designed a few years ago. She loved it, and they made a few adjustments to make it her own. This is in the watercolor technique and has 250 pieces. Look close for three tennis racket squares and five cats.

"Appliqué Sampler" by Joann Bishop. This was started in a Kim Diehl class years ago. Joann made two blocks and moved on to other projects, but always liked the pattern. It is machine appliquéd with monofilament thread and finally finished. Quilted by Cathie Opila.

Vickie Janis made this "Hot Dogs & Friends" quilt for Philanthropy. Do you remember the cereal commercial where none of the kids wanted to try the cereal? They let Mikey try it. Philanthropy tried to find someone to take the fabric sample panels with holes in them to create a quilt... Have Vickie try it? Her granddaughter Georgia loves it—probably it is the kitties and doggies, bright pinks (her favorite color) and polka dots. Vickie hopes it will find a good home.

Janis Toman made "Bee Happy" from a kit by Lori Holt that she ordered in January and after many hours finished. She am very happy to be done with it. She quilted it on the long arm she has only had a few months.

Gladys Sherman made this Boy Scout quilt for her grandson, Dylan, for achieving the rank of Eagle Scout. Quilted by Elizabeth Geer.

Gladys Sherman went on her first quilting cruise and made this "Llama" quilt in Ann Turley's class. And then made "Birds of a Feather" in Jan La Grone's class. The cruise was to Peru.

Donna Matukas made "Busy Puzzle" from a kit she bought at Hancock's in Paducah during Quilt Fest in October. This quilt was definitely out of her comfort zone, both colors and design. She thinks It will look great on her porch in Kentucky. She will be finishing the binding on the road trip back there. Thanks to Elizabeth Geer for the beautiful quilting and her friendship.

Donna Matukas loves sewing "Stack and Whack" and the colors in this one are her favorites.

Katy Lillie made "Spellbound" from Debbie Caffrey's book Shibori II. Round and round she went until it was done. It will be a gift from the gal who cuts her hair and is a really good friend who is having twin boys in June. This will be the family quilt. Quilted by Vivien Hawker of Outlaw Quilting.

Nancy Ota made this baby quilt for Jaylen James in Melbourne, Australia. Nancy and Bud left the night of the guild meeting for New Zealand, Australia, and Fiji. They attended her cousin's son's wedding in Melbourne. Simon's sister was married last spring and gave birth to Jaylen on April 4th. Nancy bought the center panel and the black & white in the border at Rainbow Resources at Road2CA. The words in the border are cities in Australia, the backing has images of Australia. She wrote Jaylen James in the "J" square, his last name Philips in the "P" square, and April 4th, his birth date, in the "B" square.

Guest Diane Criscione shared her quilt "Spring Blooms". Appliqued flowers cut from fabric and then quilted freely. She then added silk sari ribbon onto the center of each flower for a bright, three dimensional look. She found it very easy and fun to make.
