ODETTE OSANTOWSKI
“MEMORIES THROUGH MY QUILTS”

My mom began teaching me to sew at a young age. During this time, I made doll clothes and aprons. I honed my skills taking 4-H and Home Economics during school. When my brothers turned 16 they both received cars.... When I turned 16, I received a Singer sewing machine. Does that seem fair? I used this machine during college and several years after I was married. During this time I continued to sew for pleasure and practiced other crafts of the time – stained glass, macramé, knitting and needlepoint.

When I retired seven years ago, one of my goals was to learn how to quilt. I bought a sampler block book and followed the directions – boy, did I do everything wrong! Walking foot? Fat quarters? What are those? I kept making quilts and learning something new with each one. Then I met a quilter who invited me to the 2004 BCQG Quilt Show. I was so impressed with the workmanship and friendliness of the volunteers at the show that I began attending the guild meetings as a visitor and finally joined Beach Cities Quilters Guild in the fall of 2004. I joined the Surfside Quilters Guild as a charter member.

My favorite parts of quilting are being able to be creative, make my own designs, learn new techniques and, of course, buy fabrics and all those tools. I am married, have four grown children and three grandsons. My hobbies include traveling with my husband, running, kickboxing, hiking, biking, working with stained glass, gardening, babysitting grandkids and, of course, QUILTING.

Nancy's Sew Notes

Fall is here and off we go for our annual Yosemite trek. The changing colors and crisp air in the Sierras are inspirational. The Empty Spools experience at Asilomar was fabulous. If you wish to see photos, let me know. Jan and I both enjoyed our teachers, the atmosphere, programs and visiting with quilters from all over the US, England and Australia.

Cheri Hansen announced at September guild, that we will have a retreat right here in Orange County in 2010, produced by the Orange County Quilters Guild. Camp-Watch-A-Patcher is a fun week of workshops and friendships. Check out their website for information.

Everyone attending our September workshop had a grand time with teacher Lillian Gordon. It is a treat to spend a full day sewing, making new friends, and learning new techniques. I find workshops invaluable for learning as well as therapy. Yes, I have many UFOs, but feel absolutely no guilt; each one has been a lesson and holds fun memories. And occasionally I finish one.

Years ago I attended an Orange County Quilters guild meeting without knowing one person there. I remember then President Del Thomas at the microphone in 1987 telling the audience that the best way to get to know your fellow guild members is to volunteer to help on a committee and take workshops. You can see I took her advice and I am sew very, very glad I did. Quilting has definitely added sew much to my life. Sew jump right in. ## INTRODUCING.....

Barbara Seidel was born in Southern California and grew up in Northern California - as she puts it, she has dual citizenship! As an educator, she taught grades 4-12, and then she became a middle school assistant principal. She's now retired.

Her first exposure to quilts was when she was a little girl. Her mom had several quilts made by Barbara's great-grandmothers. Since her mom didn't like those quilts, Barbara got to put them on her own bed. She'd change them often, and she still has those quilts to treasure today. She also learned to sew from her mom, who nurtured her love of fabrics. When Barbara was growing up, if the kids in the family wanted more than one new outfit for school, they had to make it themselves. So, she got lots of practice that way.

New to quilting, Barbara doesn't have a favorite technique. So far, she's made a quilt for her son-in-law using his firefighter T-shirts and made textured appliquéd sunflowers for a dining room valance. Currently, she's working on a birthday quilt kit. Since she and her husband are in the middle of a house remodel, her quilting projects are beginning to stack up.

Besides sewing, Barbara is continuing the family tradition of knitting Christmas stockings for her grown children and grandchildren. This is also a craft that her mother taught her, and she treasures those memories. She also enjoys refinishing furniture and gardening. Barbara is currently in charge of the guild's December Fest event, so if you'd like to help with this special meeting in any way, just let her know. Just seek her out to introduce yourself and say hello. Or contact her at barbmelv@aol.com (949) 443-1341

OCTOBER WORKSHOP- PAPER PIECING - "Let's Go Sailing"

With Odette Osantowski

Wednesday, October 14, 2009. 10am to 4pm

Location: Community Presbyterian Church, Youth Center Portable Bldg.
32202 Del Obispo St., San Juan Capistrano 92675

With Odette's expert tips these paper pieced blocks are a great learning project for beginners and a chance to fine tune the techniques of more advanced piecers. Odette has been quilting since 2002, joined BCQG in 2004 and is a charter member of Surfside Quilters Guild. She especially enjoys designing original blocks - her favorite part of quilt making is the freedom to be creative.

GENTLY USED MAGAZINE SALES

A big Thank You to all who brought in their old quilting magazines to recycle. They are a great source for quilting ideas and we sell them four for $1.00. Bring yours in September to the magazine table.

NOVEMBER WORKSHOP
with Patricia Beaver

Here are the two block choices students will have from Patricia's wonderful quilt. The eight blocks are all different shapes and sizes. - largest blocks are about 16" X 24". They can be arranged as Patricia has them, or you could come up with your own arrangement. Any one of the blocks will make a great center for a medallion style quilt for a wall hanging or a child's quilt.

The technique Patricia is teaching is "embellished heat set fabric crayon and hand embroidery". There is no machine stitching in the workshop, so no need to lug your machine along.

There are two classes, the first on Wednesday, Nov 11 from 10am to 4pm and the second on Thursday, Nov 12 from 12pm to 6pm. Due to the popularity of this workshop we added the Thursday class, which is a repeat of the Wednesday class. You just sign up for one day. Go to the Workshop table to sign up for the class.

DECEMBER FEST December 8, 2009

Be sure to save the date. . . December 8 . . . for our December Fest fundraiser meeting. We hope that you plan to attend and will invite a friend to come with you. The short business meeting will start at 10:30 (note the time change) and then the festivities will begin - delicious food, raffle baskets, a live auction and a good time! This is our major fundraiser for the year and will help us afford speakers and teachers for next year.

There will be no Show & Tell in December.

We are asking for donations of gift baskets; it does not have to be about quilting, it could be a "tea" or "wine" or "bath" or food basket or that gift you received and put on the closet shelf that did not quite go with your house. Or, if not a completed basket, items that could go in a basket - fabric, notions, gently used quilt books, patterns that you have decided not to use. Those are just a few ideas. Quilts and garments are needed for the live auction, which will be called by Lyn Mann.

Thank you to those who signed up at our September meeting - it was a great response. For those of you who were not at the September meeting and would like to help, I will have a sign-up sheet at our October meeting. I will also take donations at the October and November general meeting. Or you may email or call to make arrangements to have your things picked up. Volunteers are also needed for sorting, wrapping and pick up from vendors. Marge Johnson quilting4me@gmail.com 949-306-6063

The December Fest committee is being led by Barbara Seidel, Event Coordinator.

With Bev Weibel/Hospitality, Joann Bishop/Publicity, Marge Johnson/Fundraising, Kathy Bellamy/Facility.

Live Auction at the December Fest

"Red, White & Blue" has been donated by Kathie Bellamy for the Live Auction portion of our December Fest. Please let us know if you have a quilt/garment/item that you wish to contribute. Our auctioneer is Lyn Mann.

Surfside Quilt Guild Logo

Surfside Quilters Guild has a fabulous new logo designed by husband and wife team Susie and Dave Russell! Their beautiful design, in various forms, will be used on our guild stationery, pins, website and other related items. There were 32 designs submitted to the Logo Contest during the three month period. A big thank you to all of the talented designers who submitted designs:

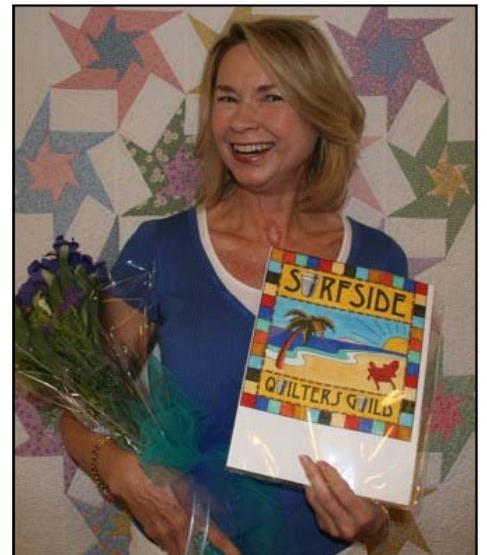

Kathy Awender	Joan Mauri
Nancy Bloyer	Mary Mulcahey
Jan Bojikes	Nancy Ota
Diane Collins	Susan & Dave Russell
Mary Gorelick	Patty Seebold
Linda Graham	Barbara Seidel & Robert Melville
Priscilla Hackbarth	Austin Stringfellow
Sue Haw & Megan Walley	Carol & Don Whiteside
Barbara Korne

After the SQG Board Members narrowed down the choices, the membership voted at the September meeting on the four final designs created by Nancy Bloyer, Susie and Dave Russell, Kathy Awender, and Linda Graham. Thank you to everyone who participated, and congratulations to Susie and Dave! Lyndy Dye Logo & Pin Chair

Dear Surfside Quilt Guild Members,

Winning the logo design contest was such a thrill and honor for my husband and me! We had stiff competition with 32 entries. Each entry exhibited a lot of creativity and each was so well executed.

Thank you so much for voting for our design and believing that the design will well represent our guild. We are looking forward to seeing the artwork transformed into our guild pin and then into other items such as stationery, newsletter headings, etc. Again, thank you so much for the honor!

STAR WATCHING.....

CALLING ALL SURFSIDE STARS

It's time to bring those signature bricks back to the next guild meeting. Now that we have our logo I would like to start putting the quilt together. You have been so generous with your contributions - I want to be sure to include your name on the quilt. You can turn them in at the Star Quilt table or if you are not going to be at the October meeting you can mail them to me.

Quilter brings 58 years of know-how to new San Clemente guild

Betty Bradley is 85 and we believe she is the oldest member of Surfside Quilters Guild. Our Publicity Committee arranged an interview for her with Debbie L. Sklar, a reporter from the Register. It appeared in the print paper on Sep 12 and the full article and the above photo can be found online at:

MONTHLY MINI.....

The Monthly Mini for September was made and donated by Nancy Bloyer - Thanks, Nancy. The winner of Nancy's fun pumpkin pillow was Sharon Whelan - Congratulations, Sharon.

Nignyo, the mermaid, was created and donated by Judi Hasselkus. Judi has been quilting since she was in high school and she still has her first doll quilt. A member of Beach Cities and Flying Geese Quilt Guilds, she also belongs to the Orange County Doll Makers. When not creating her Halloween dolls, Judi is making miniature quilts. She says, "I created Nignyo especially for your guild because you have a 'beachy' name. I am delighted to donate her and wish you all the best. You are providing a wonderful outlet for creativity. I wouldn't be doing what I am doing today without the support of all the guilds I have belonged to in my lifetime."

And from the doll..... Hi! My name is Nignyo, I am the mermaid who wards off bad luck and protects the land with peace. I was created by Judi Hasselkus. Judi has been quilting since she was in high school, but fortunately for me, she started making dolls around 1982. I am very lucky because at the present time she is only making Halloween characters. When she created me (especially for the Surfside Quilters Guild) she told me that I was going to live with someone who would love and care for me the way she would. I hope you enjoy me, I will do my best to live up to my reputation. But remember, even mermaids have bad days.

Buy lots of tickets at the meeting!

STASHBUSTERS FOR PHILANTHROPY.....

This month Stashbusters for philanthropy had a special request from the local charity “Kids Konnected” (www.kidskonnected.org), This group’s focus is entirely on children whose parents have been diagnosed with cancer or have died from it. At their annual party for the kids in December they give out stockings filled with little toys. We’ve volunteered to make kits for the stockings for our guild members to help make and embellish. Coincidentally, Stashbusters received a donation of off-white dotted Minkee last month. It is a wonderful use for this fabric, which many quilters are uncomfortable using in quilts. It’s neutral, so it can be a perfect background for embellishing, as well as being nondenominational in theme. At the October guild meeting we will be distributing the stocking kits so members can take them home to work on. We will need them back no later than the November guild meeting, in order to give them back to “Kids Konnected”. They have another event, a gala in October. Stashbusters members are donating one of the quilts they have made to be auctioned as a fundraiser for this group.

Our workshop with Rachel Maus, which was originally scheduled for September, is going to be what we will do at the next Stashbuster’s meeting on October 26 from 10 am to 4 pm at A Time To Sew. The design is called “It Just Doesn’t Matter” because of the free and easy way of piecing scraps together in a log-cabin style, making blocks, joining them, then cutting them on the diagonal to make stunning blocks. Rachel has made several quilts in this style and the results are beautiful. It is a great way to use up scraps and orphan blocks and, best of all, it is fast! Perfect for philanthropy.

We continue with our monthly food drive, so remember to bring canned and boxed goods to the guild meeting, as well as travel and sample-size items. Come pick up a stocking kit at our table in October and, if you would like to join our group, we can add you to our e-vite list. Thank you all for your support.
