General Meeting # 69 Minutes

January 13, 2015, 10:00 a.m.

San Clemente Presbyterian Church, 119 N. Ave De La Estrella, San Clemente, CA 92672

Call to Order:

President Linda Ambrosini welcomed guests and new members, and acknowledged those with January birthdays. A thank you was given to piano player Jo Hutcheson. Reminders were given concerning lunch reservations at Carbonara's, no parking in south lot, and turning off cell phones.

Special Announcements:

The Quilt Show in Anaheim continues through February 15, 2015. Information may be found on the SQG Website.

Sunshine and Shadows: Our heartfelt condolences to Katy Lillie on the loss of her brother, Matt, as well as prayers for her granddaughter Amanda who underwent heart surgery. Thoughts for a speedy recovery to Mary Jayne Bellamy and Betty Collins (both attending today's meeting) who had surgeries during the last month.

Bus Trip to Road to California Quilt Show: Maggie Bell

The cost for the trip on Thursday January 22, 2015 is $35. Deadline for reservations is January 20, 2015.

Friendship Groups: Monica Shafer (absent)

The new wool friendship group had its first meeting.

Monthly Mini: Margaret Arnold & Nancy Gasparotti

Nancy showed "Sing," a bird wall hanging designed and made by Mary Gorelick using fusing, collage and applique. A Visions catalog is also being given to the lucky winner.

Nominating Committee: Vickie Janis

Vickie encouraged everyone to complete the volunteer forms. The committee will meet January 21, 2015.

President's Quilt: Vickie Janis

Please turn in squares at next meeting.

Philanthropy: Sheri Hill

Six quilts were shown and four more from Loose Threads Friendship Group to be given as sibling quilts for the Marine shower. Barbara Seidel challenged other friendship groups to make quilts for philanthropy.

Super Swappers; Joann Bishop, Susie Russell

Joann showed several books with ideas for using swapped squares.
