November Fest (Betty Collins) Income to date: $16,832.91

Expenses to date: $1,152.30

President's Quilt (Betty Collins) We will be making Signature blocks for Linda Rigdon. THEME: "What Makes You Happy" (NOT "What makes Linda Happy"). Sign your name so it can be seen. Write something (if you wish) and/or add small applique, embroidery, etc. The pattern is a "rail fence" with two pieces of like fabrics (your choice of colors and prints) sewn on the top and bottom of the white piece. The pattern is cut: 1) 1 3/4" x 5 3/4" (white), and 2) second fabric 1 3/4" x 5 3/4". The blocks will be trimmed to 5 1/2" x 5 1/2" for assembly. Be sure to leave 5/8" empty on each side of block to allow for trimming and seams. Note: freezer paper ironed to back of white fabric will make for easier writing. Use indelible ink.

Nominating Committee (Betty Collins) Betty asked for volunteers to fill the four positions of the nominating committee and two alternates from the floor. Volunteers are Suzette Blake, Wendy McCalley, Barbara Ann Christiansen, Mary Freedman; Alternates are Carol Whiteside and Sheri Hill. Meeting to be arranged in January possibly at the San Juan Mobile Estates.

Philanthropy (Nancy Pestal and Suzette Blake) There will not be a Philanthropy meeting this month. Quilt kits are available to take and finish. The next meeting will be January 17, 2018.

Programs (Becky McDaniel) January – Shirley McGuire "How to Wool Applique and not go Broke"
